

Privacy Policy

1.1 Who Controls Your Data

BlueDiesel Malaysia, including its operators of the portable refill app and kiosk services, acts as the data user for personal data collected through its app, website, customer support channels, and kiosk transactions.

1.2 Personal Data We May Collect

Depending on how you use the services, BlueDiesel may collect:

- Identity and account data, including name, mobile number, email address, company name, vehicle details, and account credentials;
- Transaction and station data, including station ID, nozzle ID, volume dispensed, pricing, receipts, wallet activity, payment references, timestamps, and transaction outcomes;
- Support and compliance data, including customer service communications, dispute records, incident reports, and verification records;
- Technical and security data, including device identifiers, IP address, app logs, session metadata, approximate location, and fraud-prevention signals;
- Website usage data, including cookies and analytics data where used on web properties.

1.3 Purposes of Processing

BlueDiesel processes personal data to:

- Create and manage accounts;
- Authorize, secure, and complete dispensing transactions;
- Manage wallets, refunds, and billing;
- Show nearby stations and support station operations;
- Investigate fraud, misuse, disputes, safety incidents, and chargebacks;
- Provide customer support;
- Comply with tax, accounting, audit, safety, and legal obligations;
- Improve service performance, provided analytics and monitoring are used lawfully.

1.4 Disclosure of Data

BlueDiesel may disclose personal data to payment processors, e-wallet providers, cloud and hosting providers, station operators, logistics or service vendors, professional advisers, auditors, insurers, and regulators where reasonably necessary for the purposes above or where required by law.

BlueDiesel does not sell personal data.

1.5 Cross-Border Processing

Where service providers process data outside Malaysia, BlueDiesel will take reasonable steps to ensure that personal data receives a level of protection comparable to that required under applicable law.

1.6 Data Retention

BlueDiesel retains records only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes collected, or as required by law, taxation, audit, dispute handling, or operational safety requirements. Transaction and accounting records may be retained for at least 7 years where required for statutory, audit, or tax purposes.

1.7 Your Rights

Subject to applicable law, you may request access to your personal data, request correction of inaccurate or incomplete personal data, and withdraw consent for certain optional processing activities. Withdrawal of consent may affect BlueDiesel's ability to continue providing some services where the processing is necessary to operate your account or complete transactions.

1.8 Security

BlueDiesel uses administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect personal data against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, misuse, or loss. No method of transmission or storage is completely secure, and BlueDiesel cannot guarantee absolute security.

1.9 Cookies and Web Tracking

BlueDiesel's websites may use cookies and similar technologies to maintain sessions, remember preferences, improve usability, and generate aggregate analytics. Users can manage cookie preferences through browser controls or available consent tools where implemented.
